

Business Administration - Marketing Major

SCHOOL OF BUSINESS

Overview

Do you enjoy solving problems for people, discovering patterns of opportunity, creating persuasive communications, influencing buyers, and strengthening brands?

This program provides a strong foundation in business and marketing principles and the latest trends. You'll be well-prepared for diverse career opportunities in content creation, digital analytics, media, sales, promotions, and events.

In this program, you will learn how to:

- conduct comprehensive environmental scans to assess market conditions, identify and target market segments
- determine the most effective distribution channels to support planning objectives and craft integrated digital communication strategies
- identify and target gaps in relevant market segments to meet customer needs
- create products that align with organizational objectives, and develop pricing strategies
- create communication strategies to maximize planning outcomes
- create consumer journey maps and identify buyer needs
- succeed in both business-to-business (B2B) and business-to-consumer (B2C) markets.

Upon graduation, you'll be ready for various career opportunities in marketing, public relations, media, advertising, sales, promotions, and events. You'll also have the option to pursue a Canadian Professional Sales Association (CPSA) designation.

Traits, skills and aptitudes

Those in marketing tend to be directive, social and innovative.

You need:

- drive and flexibility to succeed in a competitive field
- problem-solving and decision-making skills
- the ability to be persuasive
- effective stress management techniques
- strong project management, analytic, and motivational skills
- the ability to understand data to create short- and long-term plans
- a creative, outgoing, upbeat nature
- an aptitude for computers and various software.

You should enjoy organizing information, directing others, negotiating, and finding creative solutions.

Academic path

As a graduate of this program, you can apply for SAIT's Bachelor of Business Administration - Marketing major and earn your degree with a further two years of study.

Professional designations and certifications

Upon graduation, you'll be prepared to pursue a Canadian Professional Sales Association (CPSA) designation.

Credentials

Upon successful completion of this program, you'll receive a SAIT Business Administration diploma with a major in Marketing.

Practicum, Co-op and Work Integrated Learning

You'll have the option to participate in an integrative experience capstone project in your final semester.

If you choose a capstone project, you'll work collaboratively with students from other majors to address a challenge faced by a local business or organization. You'll work together as a team to investigate and analyze the challenge or problem before presenting a solution to company representatives.
