

Journalism - Print and Online Journalism Major

SCHOOL OF BUSINESS

Overview

Are you interested in journalism and the art of storytelling? If writing and digital media are your style, the Print and Online Journalism major is a great choice.

You'll learn the basics of journalism, including ethical news reporting, and then branch out in various areas, including marketing, public relations, and social media or digital content creation.

In the first year, you'll dive into news writing, basic photography, marketing, advertising, public relations, publication design, and online journalism. You'll build a solid foundation in journalism skills, preparing you for various career opportunities in media, marketing, digital media and more.

In your second year, you'll refine your writing, editing, layout design, and digital publishing skills. You'll work on various writing formats, from news features to blogs, and gain experience in editing, business writing, copywriting, and public relations. The program culminates in a simulated "newsroom" experience where you'll create content for SAIT's online newspaper.

This field offers the flexibility to blaze your path, whether as a freelance writer or photographer or working for a company or a news organization.

Our class sizes are small, with 32 students on average, and photography class sizes are capped at 16.

Whether you're passionate about writing, photography, or digital media, our Journalism program is your first step toward a rewarding career in storytelling, communication and the creative industries.

Traits, skills and aptitudes

Those in journalism or creative industries tend to be innovative, methodical, and directive.

You need:

- flexibility
- eloquence and precise language skills
- an understanding of your medium and knowledge of your area of interest
- the ability to be objective and self-critical about your work and to accept objective criticism from others
- research and organizational skills
- time-management skills
- negotiation and marketing skills
- interviewing skills
- self-discipline.

You should enjoy gathering and clarifying information, writing, and presenting to people. You should also be prepared to work irregular hours and travel for work.

Credentials

After successfully completing this program, you'll receive a SAIT Journalism diploma with a major in Print and Online Journalism.

Practicum, Co-op and Work Integrated Learning

In your final semester, you'll participate in a four-week practicum at a digital or print-based journalism, editorial, corporate or non-profit organization.

You are responsible for securing your placement, which needs to be approved. Before your practicum, you'll complete assignments and get assistance creating a resume, setting up your LinkedIn profile, practicing interviews, and learning how to approach potential employers about a practicum placement.

You'll also have the option to complete a cooperative work term between your first and second year of study. This work term isn't required to graduate.
