

Office Professional

SCHOOL OF BUSINESS

Overview

Ready to launch a fast-paced office career? The one-year Office Professional certificate program at SAIT is your key.

Participating in small-sized classes, you'll learn how to communicate effectively, handle common office tasks, and use technology to organize and secure business information. Plus, you will collaborate with your team to tackle a range of business duties.

- work well with others and behave professionally
- provide good service to clients or customers
- handle, store, and secure information
- master the art of creating reports that businesses use
- keep up with new technology and learn how to use it at work.

Additionally, you can earn Microsoft certifications to demonstrate your skills with Word, Outlook, PowerPoint, SharePoint, OneNote, Teams, Excel, and OneDrive.

As a graduate, you will be ready for entry-level jobs in office and administration, from finance to oil and gas. You can work in business administration jobs, like administrative assistant, office assistant, office administrator, mail or message distribution clerk, and more. Or you can continue your education, apply for SAIT's Administrative Information Management program, and earn your diploma with one additional year of study.

Traits, skills and aptitudes

Office administrators tend to be objective, methodical, and innovative.

You need:

- initiative and a professional attitude
- discretion
- strong communication skills
- time management and organizational skills
- the ability to work independently or as part of a team
- computer keyboarding skills
- conflict resolution skills
- problem-solving skills.

You should enjoy working with people, using computers, and compiling and organizing information.

Academic path

Graduates of this program can bridge into the second year of SAIT's Administrative Information Management program and earn their diploma with an additional year of study.

Professional designations and certifications

You can write up to four Microsoft Office Specialist certification exams in this program:

- Word 2019 & 365 Specialist
- Excel 2019 & 365 Specialist
- PowerPoint 2019 & 365 Specialist
